

Everybody Has Been Amazed at
The Really Remarkable Bargains in This

MID-WINTER SALE

And Semi-Annual Clothing Clearance

It is a sale for the man in store, the man in the office, the man in the shop, the man on the farm. Every man who comes save money—not a few pennies, remember, but a generous saving of dollars. More than that he secures clothing of the highest character, such as

Rogers Peet & Co. Society Brand L System

You're astonished to find such clothing in a sale at mark-down prices; but it's here, and you can buy it, together with other equally desirable lines at sale prices, which make the biggest bargains of the winter.

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE PUT AT CLERICAL JOB

Berlin, Jan. 2.—The Crown Prince tomorrow morning begins clerical work at the Officials' General Staff in the room the great Moltke used occasionally. He will do the ordinary routine copying, etc., undertaken by other young officers.

The Prince, who, like all Hohenzollerns, had to learn a trade, is already a skilled cabinetmaker and spends much of his leisure making furniture.

TANGO IS DOOMED BY SOCIETY IN LONDON

London, Jan. 2.—The tango is now doomed to quick oblivion in English society. Following the Queen's lead, most of the leading hostesses, including the Duchess of Norfolk, the Ladies Convent, Ladland, Barrett, De Ramsey, Byron, Templetown, Wilkinson, Lason and Stuart have publicly and strongly condemned the dance.

PADEREWSKI PURSUED BY NIHILISTS IN WEST

Denver, Jan. 2.—Ignace Paderewski, who was to give a recital here last night, hurried out of the city in his private car for Colorado Springs. He declared he was too ill to play. His wife, in a statement, said the real reason was that Nihilists had followed him here. Six detectives accompanied his train.

During 1913, the New York City marriage license bureau issued 53,988 certificates.
